

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

February 25, 2016

Guests- Henry Rible brought Rotarian Tim Cleath and area newcomer Robert Atkins.

Crab feed- James Shammass reported that we will be aided by the youth group from the Mountainbrook Community Church as well as the Key Club during this fund raiser.

Key Club- 3 officers will be going to the District Convention in Sacramento. The club will be selling 50-50 tickets during the Crab Feed.

Soap Box- Gary Simas read a “non-political” analogy between raccoons and Donald Trump.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Rich Carsel was the fine master. Secret Greeter Doc Steele’s hand was shaken by everyone. Bob Kitamura commemorated the 12 th anniversary of his offspring leaving the house. Kevin Hauber paid for Shane Kramer’s 3 years as a Kiwanis regional trustee and getting a ride to the meeting from Mike Murphy. Shane gave for Kevin’s daughter getting a job but not quite being out of the house yet. Mike Murphy donated for “marrying up”. Doc Steele had a sad buck for the death of past-President Ron Kyker’s widow but also had to pay more for an optician joke. He then scored with 2 highway patrol jokes. Diana Meyer was fined for not having a joke and was happy about help on Crab Feed donations from Nancy Rye of the SLO AM Club. We sang Happy Birthday to Milt Batson who was also glad about having his bathrooms fixed. Lesley Cone was fined for the first time in 9 months. Bob Stratton was hit for the same reason. Jim Nielsen was caught smiling. Roger Jump gave for his 47th wedding anniversary and his upcoming trip to Uganda. Henry Rible was dunned for his poker winnings. Gary Simas gave for the same as well as Cal Poly’s baseball success. He also paid for the stolen bell.

Program- Our speakers were John Ontiveros and Shannon Slover of the CHP Coastal Division. They are based at the Paso Robles Airport which has 1 helicopter and 2 Cessna 206’s in their squadron. They perform rescues, med evacuations, enforcement procedures, and searches in coordination with local police and sheriff agencies from Santa Cruz to south of Ventura. They gave a slide show that highlighted the versatility of their helicopter in getting into tight places from the ocean to the mountains.

Drawings-	$20- Bob Kitamura	$20- James Shammass
	Flag- Milt Batson	Fine Free- Diana Meyer
	Song- Roger Jump	Soap Box- Jeff Lee
	Inspiration- Doc Steele	Joke- Cole Stevens

Membership ($70) - Bob Alderman picked the 8 of spade

Next Program- SLO County Supervisor Adam Hill

