

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

April 14, 2016

Guests- Clint Weirick of the Arroyo Grande Valley Club made one of his frequent visits.

Service Projects- Sign-up sheets were passed around for the following upcoming projects: Troop Parcels (4/28), Community Garden (4/30 & 5/7), Feed The Homeless (5/1), Curb Painting (5/14), and Food Bank (6/3).

Soap Box- Bob Kitamura is on the Library Advisory Board at Cal Poly. He said the library has changed over the years. Only about 1/3 the space is occupied by books. There are many displays from different departments.

Joke- Milt Batson discussed the meaning of the word service.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Sabrina Harper did the honors. Secret Greeter Jim Neilsen was shunned by Leslie Cone and Milt Batson. Milt also paid for the joke, whining, and his new tractor's cruise control. Roger Jump gave for his wife's birthday. Gary Simas was late with an introduction and lost the gavel. James Shammass paid for disturbing the peace. Hilding Larson donated for his wife's birthday. Doc Steele got hit for a championship bull joke. Rich Carsel may teach at Poly in exchange for a parking space. He also suggested someone clear the dishes off the tables when everyone is finished eating. Diana Meyer said Roger Jump drove well on their trip to the Key Club Convention in Sacramento, which was attended by about 2500 cheering teens. Sabrina Harper was happy about getting free advice from an attorney.

Program- Our speaker was Dawn Ortiz-Legg who is a Democrat running for the 35th District Assembly seat. She has a background in sales, technology, and energy with a Masters in Public Policy. Her platform is based on jobs, housing, and infrastructure. She wants to continue the 35th's District tradition of bipartisanship set by Sam Blakeslee and Katcho Achadjian.

Auction- We will auction off next week various gift certificates left over from the Crab Feed.
