

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

April 21, 2016

Kiwanis Auction- We auctioned off some of the gifts certificates left over from the Crab Feed, including those to the Far Western Steak House and Super Cuts. We netted an extra $160. Certificates for wine tastings and See's Candy are still available. Contact Doc Steele if you are interested.

Soap Box- Doc Steele related a funny story about how he was naively insulted by a patient. What goes around comes around.

Joke- Rich Carsel scored with a wine joke.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Bart Topham was the tail twister. Secret Greeter Rich Carsel was ignored by Fine Free Jim Nielsen and Roger Jump. Bob Stratton paid for forgetting to be Soap Box. Doc Steele was fined for his bridge play and not wearing a badge. Milt Batson was also badge less and is having trouble with his old tractor. Rich Carsel gave for Milt's poem about his recently deceased grandson in the newspaper and for an attorney story in Louisiana. Roger Jump was hit for whining and advertising his singing duets with Ralph Battles. Jim Nielsen will be in Portland next week for his granddaughter's college graduation.

Program- Hilding Larson showed a video from Bloomberg News featuring an interview with Governor Jerry Brown discussing various issues in California, the division between Republicans and Democrats, and climate change.
