

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

April 28, 2016

Guests- We had no guests other than our program speaker.

Song- Ralph Battles and Roger Jump led us on guitar through all 3 verses of Off We Go into the Wild Blue Yonder. For Soap Box, they played The Girl from Ipanema.

Joke- James Shammas got thumbs up for a golf joke.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Sabrina Harper was the extortionist. Secret Greeter Hilding Larson was greeted by everybody. Milt Batson complained about parts of the golf joke. Ralph Battles was accused of singing off key. Doc Steele was happy about the Air Force song and that Jim Dorf will be starting a new job in SLO. Jim also forwarded a happy buck for this. Rich Carsel liked that he was picked by Sabrina to give free legal advice, the singing of the Girl from Ipanema (a nude beach in Brazil), and his upcoming trip to Iceland. Gary Simas, Henry Rible, and Sabrina paid for a recent poker game. Diana Meyer enjoyed the singing. Gary Simas lost the bell.

Program- Our speaker was Matt Kokkonen, "The Legal Immigrant". Matt came to the U.S. as a teenager, serving as a junior ambassador to Disneyland. His career has been in financial planning. He is a conservative Republican. He discussed the refugee situation, radical Islam, the national debt, education, and environmental laws. He is a candidate for the 24th Congressional District.

Drawings-	$20- Jim Longabaugh	$20- Milt Batson
	Flag- James Shammas	Fine Free- James Shammas
	Song- James Shammas	Soap Box- Mike Murphy
	Inspiration- Bob Alderman	Joke- Doc Steele

Membership ($92.50) - Nancy Sayer picked the jack of diamonds.

Next Program- The Food Bank