

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

May 12, 2016

We had no guests other than our program speakers (see below).

Community Garden- James Shammass, Doc Steele, Roger Jump, and Diana Meyer, along with 2 members of the Key Club helped build planter boxes and pulled weeds on Saturday morning, May 7th. We are still waiting for the city permit to use earth moving equipment.

Curb Painting- This has been rescheduled for May 21st from 9am-12noon. Contact Doc Steele if you can help.

Soap Box- Henry Rible was happy we had no politicians speaking this week.

Joke- Doc Steele scored with a funeral joke.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Prez Gary did the fining. Secret Greeter Bob Stratton was greeted by all. Bob Kitamura will be vacationing in Hawaii. Roger Jump was happy that 2 members he sponsored, Diana Meyer and Henry Rible, have been very active in the club. Diana is glad about our program speakers but would like someone to help her with the job. Henry was glad about the entertainment Sabrina Harper and Diana have brought to the club. Bob Stratton gave for the 3 Bobs present at the meeting. Bob Alderman's granddaughter has a new job. Gary Simas gave for being a member for about 40 years. Doc Steele was fined for a lawyer joke.

Program- Our speakers were Sheila McGuire and Sybil Haley of the SLO Girls Softball Association. The Association provides afterschool and weekend recreation opportunities for about 80 girls yearly in the 5-16 age group. They are involved with other teams in SLO county as well as Cal Poly for a season that runs from March to June. The Association gives instruction in softball technique but also teaches sportsmanship, team work, and a work ethic. It has been existence in SLO City for about 30 years.
