

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

May 19, 2016

There were no guests as interim Prez Gary Simas presided over his next to last meeting.

Soap Box- No good turn goes unpunished. Jim Nielsen injured his wrist and face after taking 2 falls while helping kids at the “Get On The Bus” project.

Joke- Bob Alderman got a 50-50 response for a semi-religious joke.

Troop Parcels- Si Tennenberg will be bringing the parcels to be mailed to our military in the Middle East at the next meeting. Thanks to all who volunteered.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Kevin Hauber did the honors. Secret Greeter Gary Simas had his hand shaken by all. He also gave a happy buck for the Celtic Women concert. Kevin donated for his 55th birthday. Mike Murphy spent 2 weeks in South Carolina and is happy to be back. Rich Carsel came back from Iceland and did not have to use the gigantic umbrella that threatened his marriage. Roger Jump will be off to Carlsbad for a week. James Shammas paid for leading the singing and his nephew’s college graduation. Diana Meyer enjoyed the nighttime SLO Kiwanis Club’s tri-tip feed. Jim Nielsen gave for his falls, a trip to Portland, and an upcoming journey to Costa Rica. Bob Stratton was happy he lived another day. Doc Steele told a funny “on call” story. Henry Rible will be attending a wedding on Saturday.

Program- Diana Meyer gave a “State of the Key Club” address. She detailed the problems that she and Roger Jump had in restarting the club at SLOHS. They had difficulty getting vetted by the school, squeezing in meeting during lunch hours, finding faculty advisors, and problems with transportation rules. She is proud that they were finally chartered on Dec. 20th, 2015 after 3 1/2 months of bureaucratic frustration. The current and future officers are very capable but tend to procrastinate. All are invited to the Key Club party and officer installation on May 25th at 4pm at the Church of the Nazarene “Café”.
