

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

June 23, 2016

Guests- We had Lt. Gov. Brian Atwell as well as incoming Lt. Albert Almodovia as well as 2 other members of an Atascadero interclub, James Rikel and Bruce Bevans.

Curb Painting (6/18) - A crew of Doc Steele, Hilding Larson, Roger Jump, Bob Kitamura, and Bob Alderman painted red curbs on Pacific Street from Nipomo to Garden. Another work day in July is pending.

Election of Officers- Members nominated last week were railroaded in this week (see last week's newsletter for details). A recount is still in progress for the Presidential position.

Key Club- A pancake breakfast was to be held in Atascadero on June 25th.

Joke- Brian Atwell told a monkey joke.

Soap Box- Doc Steele complained about the economy which is so bad his TV remote has a dollar menu button on it.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Kevin Hauber was the fine master. Secret Greeter Brian Atwell nabbed Leslie Cone. Roger Jump was fined for accusing Prez Hilding of inappropriate protocol. Rich Carsel gave for the program and Roger admitting he was wrong. Brian Atwell donated for missing meetings and attending a DCM in Santa Maria. Kevin's Chevy Volt is averaging 371 miles to the gallon. Albert Almodovia is looking forward to his Lt.Gov's year. Hilding Larson will be on vacation next week.

Program- Our speakers were Roseann Parks and Beverly Kirkhart of French Hospital and its Hearst Cancer Resource Center. Some of the improvements at French include an expanded ICU, a remodeled outpatient surgical suite, a hybrid cardiac lab, and the Copeland Health Education Building. The Hearst Center provides free services to cancer patients and their relatives through 22 programs such as art and exercise therapy groups, relaxation techniques, caregiver support and dietary advice. It works in conjunction with other groups such as the American Cancer Society and Jack's Helping Hand. It is funded by grants and community donations.
