

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

July 28, 2016

Doc Steele was the interim President, standing in for Interim President Hilding Larson. There were no guests.

Curb Painting- Bob Kitamura, Hilding Larson, Bob Alderman, and Doc Steele painted the curbs red on the south side of Pacific Street from Garden to almost Morro Street on July 23rd. Another work party will be scheduled in August. We will also have a speaker from SLO City's Public Works Dept. in the near future.

Soap Box- Diana Meyer expressed the need for a program regarding membership.

Joke- James Shammass told an Irish joke unrelated to drinking. It thus had to be explained to many members of the club.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors as well as being an unsuccessful Secret Greeter. James Shammass paid for his joke and his recent vacation across the pond. Roger Jump finished the SLO Triathlon and read a victory poem he had composed. Mike Murphy gave for Roger's feat at age 73, as well as the return of Sabrina Harper and James Shammass. He and Doc Steele also donated for Irish funnies. Milt Batson was happy about Roger's poem, not having to go to Davis in the heat, and his program (see below). Rich Carsel told us about an interesting probate case.

Summer Party- Rich and Jan Carsel will host a pot luck at their house on Saturday, September 17th. Details to follow.

Program- Milt Batson gave us some tips on self publishing such as picking a publisher, contracting, marketing and sales. He then read us some poems from his recent poetry book.
