

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

August 4, 2016

Hilding Larson returned from Las Vegas to run the meeting. Stew Jenkins appeared after a long absence. Ralph Battles gave an inspirational talk about his sheep rancher uncle.

Board Meeting (8/2) - We discussed membership, the Community Garden (still awaiting city permitting), Airport Day (10/15), and a successor to Diana Meyer as interclub chairperson.

Joke- Mike Murphy gave us the secrets of a happy marriage.

Soap Box- Bob Kitamura posed some questions about the Olympics to the club.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Kevin Hauber did the extracting. There was no Secret Greeter. Ralph Battles returned from a 6 week trip visiting relatives in the Western U.S. Bob Kitamura's dad won an Olympic medal in judo. James Shammas donated for his trip across the pond. Milt Batson gave for his daughter having a 4th degree black belt in judo. Doc Steele paid big bucks for his wife having a 4th degree black belt in shopping and being in the club for 40 years. Mike Murphy was happy to see the return of Ralph, Stew, and James.

Program- Diana Meyer discussed a KI webinar on membership and a video titled "Six Steps to Change Your Club." There must be the courage to change, to have dreams, to be distinct, and nurture potential leaders. She handed out membership satisfaction surveys to be returned next meeting.
