

Kiwanis Club of San Luis Obispo
Newsletter for Dec 1, 2016

President Hilding opened the meeting. Lawyer Shane Kramer was to lead the pledge, but he was not there, but sitting in his place was lawyer Stew Jenkins, who was able to remember how it starts. Prez Hilding lead the song, and Lynn Cooper filled in for the missing Mike Johnson with an inspirational message.

We had no guests. It was reported the satellite club met at the country club Tuesday with 7 members present. Feed the homeless is this Sunday and Bob Alderman was looking for desert donations. Our next board meeting is next Tuesday, Dec 6 at Laguna Mobile home park. James is looking for sponsors for the crab feed, $1000 gets you publicity and 8 premium tickets. Diana reported on the Key Club, Roger Jump about Builders club and Bob Kitamura on Circle K activities. Kevin reported on our trip to the LA Auto show and we gave Henry a copy of the 2017 Galpin calendar with a photo of a '67 mustang with a rumble seat.

The sign up sheet was passed for the Dec 17 Salvation Army bell ringing. See the second page of this newsletter for openings. Email Hilding if you can take a shift and I will fill you in. The times are approximate until we get confirmations from the Army.

On Sunday Dec. 18 we will hold our holiday progressive dinner. The attendance list has grown to 34. If you are not on the list, email Hilding and I will add you in. Larry Meek will host the h'ordurves section, Hilding will host the salad and main meal. Ben McAdams will host the desert finale.

Hilding's email: hlarson@matrixevents.net

Our program was combined with Soapbox and presented by Ben McAdams. He came to SLO in 1969 and established his medical practice. 1970 was the year he joined the evening Kiwanis Club. Besides medicine, he has been involved in a travel agency, and promoting the arts by being on the Foundation for the Performing Arts board and spearheading their recent fundraising effort. He is also involved in the Community Foundation. He and his wife Pat, have four children with two in the local area.

Next week: Program by Gary Gray of the Kiwanis Club of Santa Barbara on how they have successfully revitalized their club and how we might be able to do the same here. Gary is also our Region 10 Trustee.
