

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Dec. 29, 2016

Guests- We had 3 members of the SLOHS Key Club: President Lily, Secretary Nicole, and recent member Oliver.

Crab Feed (2/18)- The printed materials including posters and tickets will be available this week. Donations are needed of items for the silent and live auctions. Contact Diana Meyer or Roger Jump if you have items.

Mid-Year Cal-Nev-Ha Meetings- The northern meeting will be held in San Ramon on Feb.4th and the southern one in Riverside on March 4th. The club will usually pay for the registration. Contact Hilding Larson if you are interested in going.

Joke- Doc Steele subbed for Henry Rible and scored with a Mafia joke.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the extracting. Secret Greeter Nicole of the Key Club nabbed many unfriendly members. Kevin Hauber paid for being late and his Salvation Army photo. Roger Jump was hit for a poor introduction. Henry Rible had no joke. Diana Meyer gave for renting a pen, her time with the Key Club, and her 96-yr. old mother-in-law's improving medical condition. Hilding Larson paid for confusing the troop parcels with the homeless, and having his phone ring. Doc Steele donated for not telling his Mafia joke with an Italian or Jewish accent. Five members of the former evening club were hit for sitting together. Rich Carsel gave for dropping the salad tongs and a Christmas joke. Mike Murphy was happy about the Key Club and Doc Steele fumbling to tell a clean joke. Milt Batson is glad about the contractors working on his ranch.

Program- This was provided by our Key Club members and discussed their projects and services such as the Salvation Army bell ringing, working with BB/BS, the Kiwanis Community Garden, Special Olympics, and attending the Key Club District Convention in Sacramento. $84 was raised for the Key Club account through fines and happy bucks.
