

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

March 9, 2017

Installation- Ryan Sedley, a customer service representative at Heritage Oaks Bank, was installed as a new member. Ben McAdams was Ryan's sponsor. Ryan has a wife Claudia, and a 4 ½ month old son.

Feed The Homeless (3/5)- We served about 70 people including 7 children. The families were appreciative of the earlier starting time. Thanks to all who donated and served.

Board Meeting (3/7)- We discussed the upcoming club retreat, the Crab Feed which netted between 12 and 13 thousand dollars, the Division Council Meeting, the Drive-Thru BBQ, and the purchase of Crab Feed equipment from the morning club and the purchase of blue aprons to be used at club projects. A $250 donation was voted to the Veterans Falconry Initiative.

Youth Activities- The Key Club met on 3/8 with 10 students present and elected a new board for the coming year.

Joke- George Petty got thumbs up for a pastor-cemetery joke.

Soap Box- Stew Jenkins described a recent visit to the State Supreme Court.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Diana Meyer was hit for stealing Ryan's membership apron and returning it to him. Ryan paid for losing the fine box lid. Doc Steele gave for getting his hand truck back from the Crab Feed and his 47th wedding anniversary. Mike Murphy donated for Doc's marriage jokes and Gary's job as fine master. Stew Jenkins was happy about his rental ordinance petition being considered but was unable to name the Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court. Roger Jump was fined for shaking people's hands twice and sucking up to the fine master. Henry Rible was hit for not being fined for a while. Milt Batson said his wife likes his new Jeep. Bart Topham gave for his own and his son's birthdays. George Petty was glad he had paid his estimated tax.

Program- Leslie Cone related the story of her daughter being abducted when she was fifteen years old and the trials and tribulations of her going to court and her daughter spending time in juvenile hall and boarding school. Leslie now works as a counsellor for the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, supporting parents who are going through similar ordeals. Hilding Larson presented Leslie with Andy Cone's club badge. Andy was a past president and ruthless fine master who died suddenly at age 53 in 2007.
