Doc Steele ran the meeting again. There were no guests other than our program speaker.

Drive-Thru BBQ- Ticket sales are going fairly well. Larry Meek explained the different functions of preparing the salad, beans, bread, salsa, meat and then coordinating it all to place it in the tote bag.

Key Club- They will be having an end of year party with a bonfire at Avila Beach on Friday, May 26th. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone. Contact Diana Meyer if you can help.

Soap Box- Ryan Sedley is a customer service representative at Premier Pacific Bank. He has a wife and an infant son. He also has a weekend side business lining various types of pits in the North County.

Joke- Doc Steele told an attorney joke which the lawyers in the audience approved of.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Secret Greeter Doc Steele nabbed Bob Kitamura and Ryan Sedley. Stew Jenkins gave big bucks for his 65th birthday, his 34th wedding anniversary and having his name in the newspaper. Bart Topham donated for his wife's birthday and Lynn Cooper getting her to volunteer to help make the salad for the BBQ. Rich Carsel was happy about his 29th anniversary with his current wife and Stew Jenkins getting publicity in the newspaper. Milt Batson paid for having a problem keeping the club on key during the singing of "God Bless America" and adding to last week's contribution to match Stew's donation. Doc Steel paid for losing the bell and Ben McAdams did the same for the fine box lid. Bob Kitamura gave for his mother's death, Circle K being mentioned in the Mustang Daily, and an upcoming 2-3 week trip.

Program- Our speaker was musician Ed Miller who was promoting the "Unfinished Business Memorial Day Jam, benefitting Disabled Veterans" to be held Monday, May 29th at the Avila Beach Golf Resort. It is a 5hr. concert featuring various rock groups and singers to benefit three non-profits which do research on prosthetics, give financial aid, and provide therapeutic programs for disabled veterans.
