

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

July 27, 2017

Doc Steele ran the meeting in the absence of Prez Hilding. There were no guests other than our program speakers.

Troop Parcels- We picked up 15 parcels to be mailed to the troops in the Middle East. Thanks to all who volunteered.

Community Garden- The next workday is tomorrow, July 29th.

Youth Activities- All quiet on the Western Front.

Soap Box- Dale Winslow was born in Iowa 85 years ago. He in various parts of California and is a Cal Poly graduate. He worked in the automotive and hardware business for most of his life. He has been married for 65 years.

Joke- Doc Steele subbed for Mike Johnson and scored with a fishing-porn joke.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Bart Topham was the fine master. Secret Greeter Mike Murphy was ignored by Kevin Hauber, Bob Alderman, and John Durant. Bob Kitamura was hit for talking during an introduction. Roger Jump paid for attempting to bribe a former policeman and his daughter's honeymoon. Bob Alderman gave for his birthday and Stew Jenkins did the same for his wife's. Milt Batson was happy his wife is returning home after a week with a daughter. Tom Tolbert's grandson's Little League team is in the tournament finals. Doc Steele is happy about being a Kiwanian for 41 years. Bart Topham's grandson is 3 years old and Bart's youngest son is getting a free trip to Afghanistan courteous of Uncle Sam.

Program- Our speakers were Mark Schaeffer, the CEO of United Cerebral Palsy's local chapter, and David Murray, President of its Board of Trustees. The local chapter has been in SLO since 1987 and its mission statement is "A life without limits." They provide services and choices for both children and adults with disabilities. They run Ride-On transportation as well as summer camps, technology centers, support groups, job training, autism support, and athletic opportunities. They have need for volunteers and board members.

Drawings-	$20- Bob Kitamura	$20- Diana Meyer
	Flag- James Shammas	Fine Free- Ralph Battles
	Song- John Durant	Soap Box- Diana Meyer
	Inspiration-Dick Riggins	Joke- Mike Johnson

Membership ($142.50)- The 3 of clubs was picked.

Next Program- John Durant will discuss his experience in Viet Nam.

Upcoming Dates-

7/29- Community Garden

8/6- Feed The Homeless

8/8- Board Meeting