Sept. 28, 2017

Doc Steele ran the meeting in the absence of Prez Hilding. There were no guests.

Youth Activities- Diana Meyer reported that the SLOHS Key Club will be sending 6 students to the Regional Training session. They had 14 students on Wednesday for an art program and 18 at a DCM for making dog chews, both which will be used as fundraisers.

Joke- Doc Steele told a Jewish High Holiday joke.

Soap Box- Jim Nielsen expressed his happiness with his life experiences and feels we should all write a journal of our life history to be passed on to ones' descendants.

Family BBQ- This will be held Oct. 22nd from 1-4pm at Darren Shettler's Pepper Tree Ranch off Edna Road.

Curb Painting- Jim Irwin, Bill Fieldhouse, and Doc Steele painted the town red around fire hydrants in the Foothill area. This will count as community service for their next convictions.

Circle K- They are meeting Monday evenings at 8pm for one hour in Room 107 of the Baker Science Building at Cal Poly. Members are needed to attend the meetings when advisor Bob Kitamura is not available. Contact Bob for details.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas returned as extractor in chief. Larry Meek was hit for not being inspired and a joke. Milt Batson gave for passing on the joke, a 2-week vacation in the Sierras, and an upcoming trip to Ohio for a horse competition. John Durant lost the fine box lid. Jim Irwin donated for his wedding anniversary. Doc Steele, John Durant, Rich Carsel Lynn Cooper and Mike Murphy paid for getting wife birthday alerts. Bart Topham, Bill Fieldhouse, and Lynn Cooper gave for club anniversary alerts. Tom Tolbert's grandson suffered a back injury from a motorcycle accident, but luckily has no paralysis. Diana Meyer was happy about the Key Club finding $1300 in an old school account, and her son being scheduled finally for hip surgery. Lynn Cooper reported that he, Ben McAdams, Bill Zweifel, Bill Fieldhouse, and Jim Irwin did a BBQ for Marvin Dee's grandson's wedding and that Marvin donated $500 to our club. Rich Carsel gave big bucks for having a procedure to relieve his longstanding leg pain, his wife's B-D, his wife's new car, an upcoming trip to New Orleans, and for sadness about the hurricane damage to Puerto Rico.

Program- Roger Jump and Ralph Battles led us in a sing-a-long of their latest music set, "Songs of the 1960's." Their guitars led us in the singing of such songs as "Love Me Tender", "She Loves You", and "The Streets of Laredo".
