

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Oct. 19, 2017

There were no guests other than our program speaker.

Prez Hilding announced the formation of the tax-exempt SLO Kiwanis Foundation, thanks to the efforts of Mike Johnson. A “deTolosa Contributors Award” and medal will be presented to anybody making a tax-deductible $1000 to the “corpus” of the Foundation. Thanks to Hilding and former member Erik Wand for designing the medal.

CAPSLO Volunteer Recognition- Bob Alderman accepted awards on behalf of Roger Jump, Rich Carsel, and Doc Steele for their consistent provision of food for 25 years for the Feed The Homeless project.

Troop Parcels- Si Tennenberg will be delivering the parcels, to be mailed to our troops in the Middle East, this coming meeting. Thanks to all who signed up.

Family Picnic (10/22)- This will be held this Sunday from 1-4pm at Pepper Tree Ranch off Greengate Road. The menu consists of baby back ribs, beans, salad, garlic bread, ice cream and a surprise dessert. Bottled water will be provided. Please bring any other beverage you wish to drink.

Youth Activities- The Key Club had 21 at their meeting on 10/18 of which 15 have paid their dues. Donations of art are needed for the division Art Show to be held on 11/4. The Laguna Builders Club is working on a project to provide emergency kits in each classroom. Cal Poly Circle K is marketing itself to Key clubs in other parts of the state in the hope of getting future students who come to Cal Poly.

Joke- Stew Jenkins paid for not being prepared.

Soap Box- Dick Riggins had a reunion on the East Coast with fellow retired orthopedic surgeons who rued that they are being replaced by robots.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Mike Murphy did the honors. Diana Meyer was glad her son was recovering well from hip surgery. Stew Jenkins was happy he was pronounced “cured” of his leukemia. Dick Riggins paid for his club anniversary. Milt Batson said his daughter and granddaughter won world championships at an equine competition in Ohio. Tom Tolbert and Rich Carsel made trips to New Orleans, unhampered by hurricanes. The alarm of Roger Jump’s clock award from CAPSLO went off. James Shammass was sad he missed last week and happy to be here at this meeting.

Program- Our speaker was LeAnn Standish of the Foundation for the Performing Arts Center.

The foundation is a partnership of Cal Poly, SLO City, and the community formed to build and maintain the Performing Arts Center on the Cal Poly campus. About 90,000 people viewed performances there last year. Besides helping fund the maintenance of the center, the foundation also funds programs for students (8,000 last year) and seniors.

Drawings-	$20- Diana Meyer	$20- Bob Kitamura
	Flag- Shane Kramer	Fine Free- Tom Tolbert
	Song- James Shammas	Soap Box- Bill Fieldhouse
	Inspiration- Gary Simas	Joke- Roger Jump

Membership ($70)- Dale Winslow picked the jack of clubs.

Next Program- Heidi McPherson of the Community Foundation.

Upcoming Dates-

10/22- Family BBQ.

10/26- Troop Parcels.

10/28- Adoption Agency BBQ at the Vet's Hall.

11/1 Board Meeting.

11/6- Feed The Homeless.

11/16- See's Candy deadline for orders.

12/1- LA Auto Show.

12/10- Holiday progressive dinner.