

Kiwanis newsletter for 11-30-17

Pres. Hilding called meeting to order and Bart led the pledge. Milt gave an invocation, followed by Hilding's patriotic song.

Diana introduced Tracy Schiro, Asst Social Services Director – and our guest speaker. George reported on the latest Satellite club meeting – 5 attended.

Bob reminded everyone about the upcoming feed-the-homeless coming up Sunday. Hilding announced the board meeting for the 6th at noon. Steve Click (current Lt. Gov) was intro'd and announced the Division council meeting set for wed. the 13th. 6pm w/ a speaker on grant writing. The Kiwanis Gov. will be visiting on Feb. 17th. Diana said the Key club met and 18 members had a very good meeting. Roger J. reported that the Builders club will be folding for now – too many schedule conflicts for success right now. Pick up your See's candy, if you haven't.

The Progressive Dinner is Sunday 12/10 starting at 5pm. Jim Nielson shared a Cherokee wisdom tale for soapbox. Gary managed to fine Roger and James for talking at the wrong time, but couldn't get John or Bart who were fine free. Stu and Roger paid up. Our speaker told us about foster care programs and innovations, including "College for Foster Care Kids".

Next meeting: 12/7

Pledge – Kevin Song- Bill F. Inspiration- George Fine free- Tom T.
Soap Box – Shane Joke - Bart