

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Feb. 22, 2018

Doc Steele ran the meeting as Prez Hilding was in Sacramento helping with the Kiwanis mid-winter conference.

Guests- Lt. Gov. Steve Click made another visit bringing our club $70 from the DCM Bingo Night and promoting the KI convention in Las Vegas this June and the CalNevHa convention in August in Hawaii.

Satellite Meeting (2/20)- 6 members attended including George Petty, Ken Rodman, Marvin Dee, Chuck Braun, Marty Craven, and Herb Filipponi.

Crab Feed- We have sold over 200 tickets so far. Auction items are still needed.

Governor's Visit (2/17)- We were represented by Hilding Larson, Doc Steele, Bob Kitamura, and Diana Meyer. Hilding and Diana were awarded Distinguished Service Awards.

Youth Activities- Key Club members are helping make up gift baskets to be raffled off at the Crab Feed.

Joke- George Petty scored with a list of management tips.

Soap Box- Doc Steele, whose idol was Don Rickles, entertained us with a couple of the parodies he has written.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas was the fine master. Doc Steele was hit for a repetitive wife joke. Rich Carsel had happy bucks for his 94mpg auto and getting April Curtze to donate an estate plan for the auction, and a sad buck for the Florida high school shooting. Ben McAdams paid for his phone ringing. Lynn Cooper was hit for Rich Carsel adverting Lynn's brokerage. Henry Rible left early. Roger Jump was fined on principle.

Program- Our speaker was Sheila McGuire representing the SLO Girls Softball Association. The group is made up of 145 girls on 8 teams. This year they will have an under 6 age group as well as others up to under 14's. Our club has donated $400 to them this year which will be used to purchase helmets and for scholarships. Other teams in the league include Morro Bay, Paso Robles, and Atascadero. All coaches are volunteers and include members of the SLOHS softball team. The season starts March 17th.
