

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Mar. 1, 2018

Guests- Our only guest was Past Lt. Gov. Brian Atwell who is donating a 1 hr. flight in his plane to the Crab Feed auction.

Crab Feed (3/10)- We have sold about 275 tickets so far. We would like to sell another 40-50.

Sick Call- Jim Irwin had shoulder replacement surgery and Bob Kitamura had a coronary bypass procedure this week. Get well soon guys.

Satellite Meeting (2/27)- 6 members attended including George Petty, Marvin Dee, Chuck Braun, Ken Rodman, Herb Filipponi, and Ben McAdams.

Circle K- They had their elections and have a new slate of officers.

Resignation- Tom Tolbert resigned his membership.

CalNevHa Foundation- We received a patch for our $150 donation for the Best Dude's "Call to Aktion".

Joke- Hilding Larson got mixed reviews for his "Mickey Mouse" joke.

Soap Box- Brian Atwell advertised his flight (see above) and the Atascadero Club's Winemaker Dinner in June.

Transitions Mental Health Association- James Shammas is seeking sponsors for his bowling team in their annual benefit.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the extraction. He gave for his club anniversary. Henry Rible paid for a lost Crab Feed ticket that he found. George Petty and Ben McAdams were hit for praying. Hilding Larson weaseled out of his joke fine as he was fine-free. John Durant gave for his B-D. George Petty's satellite club list was one name short. Roger Jump donated for his 49th wedding anniversary and his wife's B-D. Doc Steele gave for his 48th wedding anniversary. Rich Carsel paid for brother John's anniversary, leaving early, and a fake investigation. James Shammas' mother is recovering from pneumonia. Brian Atwell gave an idiot buck for calling George Petty "Roger".

Program- Our speaker was Brittany Gregory, a marriage and family therapist intern with SLO County Drug & Alcohol Services. She was a Key Club member in high school. Her department provides up to 10 counseling sessions for teens and young adults with mental health problems. They also have clinics for youths and families with substance abuse problems. They sponsor Friday Night Live for alcohol and drug prevention and also have a Veterans Outreach Unit.
