Guests- There were none other than our program speaker.

Crab Feed (3/10)- This went off without a hitch thanks to all the members who worked, sold tickets, and served in various capacities under the able leadership of James Shammas, Henry Rible, and Hilding Larson, as well as the help from the Mountainbrook Church Youth Group, Key Club, and Circle K. We netted in the ballpark of $8,000.

DCM (3/14)- This was attended by Diana Meyer, Hilding Larson, and Roger Jump and was focused on clubs adding membership.

Key Club (3/14)- The meeting was attended by 7 students. The club earned $166 by helping with the raffle at the Crab Feed.

Joke- Jim Nielsen scored with a marriage counseling funny.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas was the extractor and paid for missing the Crab Feed and his phone ringing. Larry Meek gave for his wife losing her phone at the Feed. Hilding Larson was hit for not answering the phone when she was attempting to find it and his 68th B-D. Roger Jump was late. Rich Carsel did not take his wife's wine home from the Feed.

Program- Our speaker was Bill McQuilken, current foreperson of the Civil Grand Jury. The jury consists of 19 people, from all walks of life, who investigate complaints and examine different aspects of local government. They look into the workings of the governments of the county and its cities as well as the various school and special districts. They also examine conditions at the County Jail and at CMC. Volunteers serve one year and usually devote 20 hours per week meeting, touring, and writing reports.
