April 19,2018

Prez Hilding returned after attending the Key Club convention with 2000 teens in Reno. Ralph Battles brought Donette Dunaway, daughter of former member Baxter Dunaway, who is starting a Pedicab business.

Drive-Thru BBQ- Bill Fieldhouse distributed tickets and instructions for this fundraiser to be held on May 18th.

BBQ Committee- We barbequed for the alumni of Delta Tau fraternity of Cal Poly at the Monday Club on 4/15. We made $1000 for our club. Participating were Jim Irwin, Bill Fieldhouse, Lynn Cooper, Dick Riggins, John Durant, Larry Meek, James Shammas, and Doc Steele.

Key Club- 10 students attended this week's meeting and 4 attended the Tiger Fest for incoming students.

Joke- Donette Dunaway told a pizza joke.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the extraction. Ralph Battles paid for Donette's joke, advertising her business, and trips to Missouri and Texas. Diana Meyer needs drops for an eye condition. Doc Steele was hit for using the term "goyim" in last week's newsletter. Larry Meek's attempt to defend him was in vain. Roger Jump gave a happy buck, shining up to the fine master. Lynn Cooper was fined for having a private meeting. Larry Meek and Bill Fieldhouse paid for April birthdays while Hilding gave for his spouse's B-D.

Program- Our speaker was Juliane McAdam, the public relations manager, of Meals That Connect. This was formerly the Senior Nutrition Program. Its name was changed after a marketing program that redid the mission statement, the web site, the Facebook page, and the logo. It feeds about 550 people daily at 10 dining sites and by county-wide delivery. It has 30 full and part-time employees as well as 300 volunteers. Meals are free for those aged 60 and over but donations are accepted. There is a $1.2million annual budget half of which is provided by government grants and half by donations. The program also partners with Cal Poly, the Grizzly Academy, and Path Point to give their members food service experience.
