

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

June 28, 2018

Doc Steele ran the meeting as Prez Hilding was in Las Vegas with the club's treasury for the KI Convention.

Guests- Ben McAdams brought Fred Kelley who is a potential member and Fred's mother Lorraine. Rich Carsel brought Mechell Vieira who runs a home health service and has submitted her application to be a new member. Bob Voglin of Surfing for Hope was a guest of Roger Jump.

Key Club- Two members went to the DCM in Santa Maria last weekend.

Blues Baseball- Roger Jump could use some help at a recruiting table before and during tomorrow afternoon's game.

Joke- Doc Steele scored with an atheist soldiers' funny.

Soap Box- Rich Carsel described trips to Cuba and Iceland.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the extracting. Doc Steele paid for a poor intro. Milt Batson gave for a vacation trip to Nebraska and New Mexico. Ben McAdams attended his 60<sup>-year</sup> college graduation reunion and has a birthday coming up in July. Ralph Battles donated for a B-D 2 weeks ago and a mountain climbing trip to Oregon. Stew Jenkins is looking forward to a hip replacement and not being able to drive his Mercedes for a while. Rich Carsel elaborated more about Iceland being the world's oldest democracy, no crime, and having universal health care and education. Lorraine Kelley donated to the club.

Program- Our speaker was Abe Lincoln, executive director of the Noor Foundation. The Foundation runs a free clinic which provides medical, dental, and vision care to the uninsured. It was started in 2011 by Dr. Ahmad Nooristani, an Afghan refugee, who has worked as a hospitalist in SLO since 2009. They have clinics in SLO and Paso and are now seeing about 500 patients per month. They have 80 medical professional volunteers and are financed by grants and fundraising.

Drawings-	$10- Jim Irwin	$30- Doc Steele
	Flag- Lynn Cooper	Fine Free- Bart Topham
	Song- Doc Steele	Soap Box- Jim Irwin
	Inspiration- Hilding Larson	Joke- Gary Simas

Membership ($85)- Jim Irwin picked the 5 of hearts.

Next Program- SLOHS Key Club.

Upcoming Dates-

6/30- Blues Baseball.

7/1- Feed The Homeless.

7/2- Board Meeting at Doc Steele's house. Directions to be sent via separate email.