

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

July 12, 2018

Doc Steele ran the meeting as Prez Hilding was on vacation.

Guests- Lt. Gov. Steve Click made one of his frequent appearances. Ralph Battles brought fellow ag-business author Bob Thompson. City mayoral candidate T. Keith Gurnee was a guest of Stew Jenkins. Soon to be new member, financial advisor Ralph Slocum, was a guest of Rich Carsel.

DCM (7/11)- James Shammass represented our club. There will be a leadership class on July 14th. The CalNevHa District Convention is in Kona in August. Contact Hilding Larson if you would like to be a club delegate.

Joke- Rich Carsel told a lawyer joke.

BBQ Committee- We will be making tri-tip sandwiches at Laguna Middle School on Aug. 14th.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas was the fine master. Dick Riggins got hit for a poor intro. Rich Carsel paid for his brother's photo in New Times as well as his trip to 2 national parks. Doc Steele (who forgot he was fine free) was fined for a Harley Davidson joke. Gary Simas gave a buck for the fine. Bob Kitamura was happy the Dodgers won 2 of 3 games he saw in L.A. Diana Meyer is doing crafts with 74 children at her church's Choir Camp. Ben McAdams donated for his birthday. Steve Click gave for Roger Jump and Ralph Battles attempting to promote Kiwanis at a Blues' baseball game. Stew Jenkins will have a hip replacement next week.

Program- Our speaker was Bob Voglin, founder of the Surfing For Hope Foundation. Bob is a cancer survivor and a lifelong surfer. He started the foundation 8 years ago to help inspire people challenged by cancer through the positive energy of surfing. With help from the Hearst Cancer Resource Center and the French Hospital Foundation, they have raised about $250K over the last 6 years. It is donated to other cancer support projects. They hold an annual surfing contest, dinner with auction, cancer resource health fair, and a program for youths in families with cancer.
