

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Aug. 2, 2018

Doc Steele ran the meeting as Prez Hilding was on his way to Hawaii.

Guests- Lt. Gov. Steve Click who advertised the next DCM in Atascadero on 8/22.

Board Meeting (8/1)- We approved the membership application of Nicholas Anthony who will be inducted on 8/22. We granted funds to the Noor Clinic, Surfing for Hope, and the CalNevHa Foundation for fire disaster relief.

BBQ's- We netted about $9200 on the Drive-thru BBQ. Bill Fieldhouse and Ben McAdams expounded on the need for more help in doing the BBQ as well as selling more tickets.

We are scheduled to do a tri-tip lunch at Laguna Middle School on 8/14. Contact Jim Irwin if you can help.

Key Club- They are scheduled for a DCM on 8/18 with a beach cleanup as their project.

Joke- Bob Kitamura got thumbs up for a job interview funny.

Soap Box- Milt Batson said things are progressing well in turning his 10-acre rancho in Arroyo Grande into a park-like setting.

Funeral Service- Jim Nielsen's wife Judy's service will be held Saturday (8/4) at First Presbyterian Church at 2pm.

Field Trip- In lieu of a regular meeting on Oct. 4th, we will have a field trip (with lunch included) at Mind Body. Further details to follow.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Doc Steele did the honors. He donated for being in the club for 42 years. Bill Fieldhouse was hit for interrupting the song. Fine-free Ben McAdams was not charged for giving tax advice but Bob Kitamura and Rich Carsel paid for being named "big donors" by Ben. Milt Batson was fined for cutting a ground wire while fixing up his park. Bob Alderman was happy his relatives in the Redding area near the big fire are all ok. He also gave for his birthday, as did Diana Meyer for hers. Ralph Slocum was glad his son got 2 job offers.

Program- Our speaker was Andrew Hackleman, executive director of the Home Builders Association. He spoke about the need for increasing the housing supply in SLO City and County to help with the affordability problem. He touched on problems with traffic congestion, water supply, and Cal Poly enrollment.

Drawings- $15- Diana Meyer

$20- Ralph Slocum

Flag- Bill Fieldhouse

Fine Free- Stew Jenkins

Song- James Shammas

Soap Box- John Durant

Inspiration- Leslie Cone

Joke- Milt Batson

Membership ($97.50)- Bill Fieldhouse picked the 7 of spades.

Next Program- Stand Strong Now.

Upcoming Dates-

8/14- Laguna BBQ.

8/16- Membership Committee meeting at Black Horse Coffee on LOVR at 4pm.

9/5- Board Meeting.