

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Aug. 9, 2018

Doc Steele ran the meeting while Prez Hilding was sunning himself in Kona at the CalNevHa District Convention. Satellite attendee Mary Craven made a rare daytime appearance.

Feed The Homeless (8/5)- We fed about 110 people including 15 children. Thanks to all who donated and/or served.

BBQ's- We earned $600 serving tri-tip sandwiches at the Filipponi Ranch Winery on 7/22. We will be making lunch for incoming students at Laguna Middle School this coming Tuesday. Next year's Drive-thru BBQ will be on May 17th.

Key Club- They will be doing a beach cleanup on 8/18.

Joke- Doc Steele got mixed reviews for a Gym-ATM funny.

Scholarships- We received recognition in the Tribune with a photo of the SLOHS Kiwanis scholarship recipients.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Rich Carsel got hit for a poor intro. John Carsel paid for being late and his wife's letter to the editor. Marty Craven had no badge. Jim Nielsen was back and thanked the club for its compassion in regard to his wife's illness and death. Roger Jump was impressed with her funeral service. Bob Alderman gave for his club anniversary and the safety of more relatives in fire's way. Gary Simas (class of 1959) attended a ceremony for people who graduated SLOHS more than 50 years ago. Ralph Slocum attended a wedding in Portland. John Carsel was happy for this addition to his possible divorce inventory. Diana Meyer was fined for calling Gary President. Bill Fieldhouse celebrated his 58th wedding anniversary.

Program- Our speaker was Kirsten Rambo, executive director of Stand Strong (formerly the Women's Shelter). Her group served about 800 victims of intimate partner violence or child abuse last year. They provide emergency shelter, counseling, transitional housing, and legal services to their clients. They need volunteers for their crisis line and for child care. The Madonna Inn Fashion Show will be no longer but a fundraiser at Embassy Suites next April is being planned.
