

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Oct. 25, 2018

There were no guests other than our program speaker. The song, as suggested by an absent Mechell Vieira, was Row, Row, Row Your Boat, led by Roger Jump, and was successfully performed in rounds by 3 groups of members.

Key Club- 5 members have done enough service to be eligible to go to Fall Rally.

Sick Call- Leslie Cone had a fall secondary to balance problems. Dale Winslow resigned from the club due to medical problems.

BBQ Committee- the next BBQ will be on Saturday, Nov.3rd at the Vets Hall in honor of County Social Services' Adoption Agency. Contact Jim Irwin or Jerry Lenthall if you can help.

Joke- Milt Batson read off some realizations of getting older.

Soap Box- Lynn Cooper reported on the status of real estate in SLO City. There are currently 101 active listings with 40 priced at more than $1,000,000.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Bob Kitamura was the substitute fine master. Roger Jump paid for thinking Bob wasn't tough enough for the job. Bob Alderman forgot to give some members their 50-50 tickets. Milt Batson was late. Diana Meyer confused Leslie Cone with someone named Laura and complained about her own dental conditions. Rich Carsel left some money for leaving early, not having a badge, and not shaking hands with the Top Secret Greeter. Kit attempted to tag fine-free Hilding Larson for losing control of the meeting. Jim Irwin gave for his 41st wedding anniversary and getting a form 1099 for winning the membership drawing last week.

Program- Our speaker was Bob Vogelin, a candidate for SLO City Council. Bob has a background in marine biology and environmental work and started Surfing for Hope, a non-profit for cancer patients and their families. He feels the city is losing its charm with taller building, a parking deficiency, and not building enough infrastructure to support its growth. He also believes Cal Poly should step up to the plate with more housing on campus.
