Nov. 1, 2018

There were no guests other than our program speaker.

Interclub (10/30)- 4 members (Simas, Irwin, Steele, Kitamura) visited the SLO AM Club at IHOP and heard a preview of Lt. Governor Norm Cone's start of year speech.

Key Club- A Spirt Rally is to be held at Meadow Park on 11/3. A group of 6 will be going to Fall Rally at Magic Mountain on 11/10.

Salvation Army- We will be ringing the bells on Saturday, Dec. 16th. Locations to be determined.

See's Candy- Please get your orders in by Nov. 15th. If you need an order sheet, contact Doc Steele.

Joke- Bart Topham got away with a blonde joke.

Soap Box- Rich Carsel described conditions in the Israeli Army. Service for both men and women is encouraged but can be refused. There is no boot camp. The army is administered on the basis of trust and respect between officers and enlisted people. There is no drug problem in Israel.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas returned to do the squeeze. Bob Kitamura got hit for a poor intro. James Shammas paid for not guarding the fine box. Doc Steele paid for his IHOP email. Rich Carsel was glad to see Bart Topham back. Bart gave for being back. Ralph Battles donated for the guest speaker. Ralph Slocum gave big bucks for his daughter getting married. Diana Meyer has a new tooth. Milt Batson was happy about the soap box.

Program- Our speaker was Gabriel Granados of the SLO County Health Agency. He is the coordinator of Veterans Outreach. They provide counseling, social opportunities, and physical and recreational activities for veterans to help with their emotional well-being and get a better understanding of themselves. It helps them cope with conditions such as PTSD. The outreach also coordinates with other services such as housing and job finding. Activities provided include zip lining, archery, kayaking, surfing, hiking, rock climbing, and horseback riding.
