

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Nov.8, 2018

There were no guests other than our program speaker.

Feed The Homeless (11/4)- We fed about 100 people including 13 children. Thanks to all who donated or served.

Board Meeting (11/7)- We were visited by Lt. Gov. Norm Cone who emphasized the need for more attendance at the Mid-year conferences. These will be held in San Diego on Feb26th and Santa Rosa on March 2nd. (1) To this end the board voted to allow up to $300 per attendee to pay for transportation, registration, and lodging. (2) The troop parcel payment policy has been changed. Members can continue to be billed monthly as before or make out a yearly check to the SLO Kiwanis Foundation. (3) The Foundation Board voted to increase the amount of SLOHS scholarships to $1500.

Key Club- 10 students were at the meeting this week. 6 will be going to Fall Rally at Magic Mountain.

Crab Feed (3/16/2019)- We are looking for $1000 sponsors who will receive 10 premium tickets and recognition on posters and tickets. Ticket prices will be the same as last year- $65 for premium and $49 for general admission.

See's Candy- The deadline for placing orders is next Thursday's meeting (11/15). Please get them to Ben McAdams or Doc Steele by then.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Rich Carsel and Jim Irwin were hit for having private meetings. Jim also gave for his birthday. James Shammas donated for his B-D and the Adoption Agency BBQ. Ralph Slocum was happy his son got a job in New Zealand but chagrined about losing the fine box lid. Henry Rible noted the fine box is about 75 years old. He was happy a cousin was doing well after multiple tragedies. Lynn Cooper gave for his wedding anniversary next month. Roger Jump was happy about Lifewater, Kiwanis, and his singing career.

Soap Box- Doc Steele gave us a quick report on the history of Veterans Day.

Program- Our speaker was Thomas Kessler, the Executive Director of the History Center of San Luis Obispo County. They run the museum housed at the Carnegie Library built in 1904 and the Daliadet Adobe which dates back to the 1850's. The center archives various documents from the county and has ongoing exhibits, most currently one about La Fiesta. Our club has done multiple projects at the Adobe such as laying bricks, building benches, installing antique lights, and painting.
