

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Nov. 15, 2018

Guests- Lt. Gov. Norm Cone, Bruce Eddy of the San Jose Club, and George Shammass (father of James).

Induction- Nicholas Anthony was inducted as a new member. He was sponsored by Ben McAdams. Nick lives in Atascadero and has a new job as a legal clerk at the SLO Sheriff's Dept. He formerly worked with the Community Foundation.

DCM (12/14)- This was held at Kiwanis Hall in Atascadero. Club projects and goals were discussed. 3 clubs have increased their membership since Oct. 1st.

Interclub- We are trying to arrange an interclub with the Bay-Osos club on Wednesday, Dec. 12th at noon. Please contact Doc Steele if you can make it.

CCFC- We donated 2 BBQ's to Central Coast Funds for Children which were auctioned off for almost $4000.

SLO Winds- We received a thank you and recognition in a newspaper ad for our $500 donation.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Kevin Hauber was the fine master. Rich Carsel paid for no badge, leaving early, and announcing the annual Thanksgiving non-denominational service at 3pm on 11/18 at the United Church of Christ Congregation on LOVR. Bart Topham was happy to be back but also had to leave early. Ralph Battles also had no badge but was happy about the safety of his daughter living near Paradise, Ca. Ben McAdams gave for a 3-week trip to the Caribbean and insulting Nick Anthony. Bruce Eddy was happy being here. Bob Alderman was late. Henry Rible explained how PG&E tries to limit its liabilities. Lynn Cooper paid for a poor intro.

Program- Our speaker was Lt. Gov. Norm Cone of the Paso Robles Club. He said our goals should be to help our community and have fun doing it. We should try to get more publicity which would hopefully lead to more members and enable us to do more service. He mentioned how our service projects help our localities and how KI's projects help the world (Project Eliminate and IDD).
