

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Dec. 6, 2018

Guests- Steve Rye from the SLO AM Club.

Feed The Homeless (12/2)- We fed 115 people including 10-15 children. Thanks to all who donated and/or served.

Board Meeting (12/5)- Detailed budgets for the club and the Foundation were discussed. We donated over $8000 to community groups during the 2017-18 year plus donated BBQ's to other non-profits which helped them raise close to that amount. We will be responsible for hosting a DCM in 2019, most likely in May. We voted to donate $500 to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes for their annual football game and $250 to the CalNevHa Foundation.

See's Candy- We sold about $2000 which netted the club about $400.

Crab Feed (3/16/2019)- Our major sponsors are Gulliver's Travels, Burkhart & Associates Accounting, and Upper Crust. Prices are the same as last year-$49 for general admission and $65 for premium seating. Tickets and posters are being printed now and should be available in the next couple of weeks.

Interclub- The interclub originally scheduled for 12/12 has been postponed until sometime in January.

SLO AM Club- They will be holding chili cook-offs at their meeting next week and at the DCM in Atascadero on Jan. 9th.

Toys for Tots- Please bring an unwrapped toy worth more than $10 to next week's meeting.

Sick Call- Ken Rodman has liver cancer. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Joke- Hilding Larson discussed whether Hell is endothermic or exothermic.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas was the fine master. Bob Alderman paid for starting the song on the wrong note. Roger Jump gave for defending him and being inspired by the George H.W. Bush services. Jim Irwin was guilty of a poor intro. Hilding Larson was hit for losing control as was Ben McAdams for not paying attention. Rich Carsel and Roger Jump paid for having their own meeting. Bart Topham was looking forward to visit his son in the Army in Texas. Dick Riggins' wife's health is improving. Kevin Hauber reported that a group of 12 attended the LA Auto Show. Rich Carsel said his wife was impressed with the $220,000 Mercedes there but Rich only offered to buy the latest Yugo. James Shammass was happy to be back after missing a week. Lynn Cooper is celebrating his 59th wedding anniversary.

Program- Melanie Williams-Mahan of the Bay-Osos Club presented a tape about Partners in Equestrian Therapy, a non-profit which she leads. This group provides horseback riding opportunities for adult and children with disabilities to teach independence, and provide happiness for individuals with conditions such as autism, PTSD, and physical infirmities. The program is financed by individual fees and grants from government and private agencies. The program is coordinated with student volunteers from Cal Poly and Cuesta as well as private individual and horse people.
