There were no guests.

DeTolosa Award- Bob Kitamura received his commemorative medal for his donation to the SLO Kiwanis Foundation.

Salvation Army Bell Ringing (12/15)- We will be participating in this project as we have for over 40 years. Locations are at Ralph's and Best Buy at Madonna Plaza as well as at Beverley's Fabrics downtown. Prez Hilding has emailed the schedule of volunteers.

Progressive Dinner (12/16)- This starts at Larry Meek's house for appetizers at 4:30pm, then Hilding Larson's for salad and entrée, and ends at the Filipponi Ranch Winery for dessert. Driving directions have been emailed/

Joke- Larry Meek scored with a medical funny.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Bill Fieldhouse paid for a See's Candy delivery and a Division of Highways Instructional manual. Ralph Slocum also gave for a candy delivery as well as his son in New Zealand having a job. Doc Steele was happy his wife survived an appendectomy. Bart Topham donated for a trip visiting family in Texas and his 15th wedding anniversary. Rich Carsel gave happy bucks for no reason and then told us he accompanied Bart on his honeymoon. Milt Batson was happy about his wedding anniversary, his wife's B-D, getting a tree trunk removed, and family coming for the holidays. Roger Jump and Ben McAdams paid for their club anniversaries. Bob Alderman left early.

Program- Our speaker was Bart Topham, representing the SLO Central Coast Veterans Memorial Museum. It was started 18 years ago to give future generations information about the sacrifices made to preserve our freedom. The museum collects artifacts, books, memorabilia and oral histories from veterans. It also has an armory with weapons dating back to the 1800's. It is open Wed-Sat. from 10am-3pm. Memberships are available for $30/yr. Volunteer docents are also needed. Bart handed out a recipe for the famous "SOS".
