

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Jan. 3, 2019

Guests- Bruce Eddy of the San Jose club made one of his periodic visits. We also welcomed Jenny Chu of the SLOHS Key Club.

Song- Bill Fieldhouse, who was born north of the border, tried to lead us in singing O Canada. As a public service, he has provided the words at the bottom of this newsletter.

Interclub- We are visiting Bay-Osos at noon on Wednesday, Jan.16th. Contact Doc Steele if you can make.

Crab Feed (3/16)- James Shammass handed out display posters and will have tickets available next week.

Joke- Rich Carsel scored with a New Year's Eve cab ride story.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Larry Meek was the fine master. Milt Batson had a good family visit but broke his kneecap attending a basketball game. Bruce Eddy was happy to be here. Kevin Hauber left early. Roger Jump enjoyed Hilding's Soap Box-Program (see below). Henry Rible was happy to find a $20 bill. Bill Fieldhouse got hit for the song. Ralph Slocum paid for taking the fine box from Ben McAdams.

Soap Box- Program- Hilding Larson told us about his New Year's weekend trip to Pasadena where he attended the KI President's luncheon and helped build the Kiwanis Rose Parade float. He described in detail how the float was constructed and transported to the parade route. Besides Hilding, hundreds of volunteers from Key Clubs and Circle K Clubs in the area participated in the work.

O Canada

O Canada!

Our home and native land!

True patriot love in all of our command.

With glowing hearts, we see thee rise,

The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
