

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Jan. 10, 2019

Guests- We hosted 3 members of the Cal Poly Circle K- Lt. Gov. Nicholas Wright, President Weston Montgomery, and Technology Officer Whitney Larsen.

Feed The Homeless (1/6)- We fed about 120 people on a rainy night. Thanks to all who donated and served.

Board Meeting (1/9)- We will be changing the board meeting day of the week to the 1st Tuesday instead of Wednesday. We are donating $5/member to the KI Children's Fund. We will help finance up to 5 Circle K members to go to their District Convention. We discussed the Crab Feed to be held in March and hosting the DCM, most likely in July.

Circle K- Cal Poly is part of the Central Coast Division which has 9 clubs and runs from Merced to Malibu. The Cal Poly chapter currently has 18 members and meets on Wednesdays at 6pm in Bldg. 192, Rm 248. Current projects include beach cleanups, volunteering at the Prado Center, and helping our club with the Crab Feed.

Joke- Diana Meyer scored with a high school reunion funny.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas returned as the extractor. Jim Irwin gave up part of his American Legion raffle winnings. Larry Meek got hit for his leading of the song. Bob Kitamura was fined for a poor intro of the Circle K guests but gave for their presence. Hilding Larson was blamed for the poor intro. Rich Carsel donated for agreeing with Kit and for forgetting to bring a salad to the homeless feed. Diana Meyer was happy about her 5th anniversary in the club,

Program- Diana Meyer gave us a review of the SLOHS Key Club's activities for the last year. They currently have 11 members and participated in 142 service hours. They have raised money for Pediatric Trauma, Projects Eliminate, Salvation Army, and the KI Children's Fund.
