Jan. 17, 2019

For the first time ever, the tag team of Prez Hilding and Doc Steele ran the meeting. Hilding presided during the first order of business (also out of order), the program, and Doc Steele took over when Hilding had to leave early.

Guests- Rich Carsel brought Taylor Messer for his second visit and long-time member Marvin Dee made his first appearance at the noon time meeting.

Program- Our speaker was Kevin Bumen, director of the SLO County Airports (SLO & Oceano). The SLO airport contains 2 runways and 16 buildings on 356 acres. Its new terminal is 58,000 sq. feet. It is self-financed by passenger and landing fees but its biggest revenue producer is car parking fees. It is expected to service about 530,000 passengers in 2019 on 17 daily flights to 6 cities. This is about double the amount over the last 10 years. However, because of convenience factors and airline pricing, it only serves about 1/3 of the traffic from this area. Future projects include parking expansion, runway rehabilitation, taxiway realignment, and glideslope relocation.

Interclub 1/16)- Doc Steele, Hilding Larson, Bob Kitamura, and Jim Irwin made it to Bay-Osos.

Crab Feed (3/16)- Tickets, flyers, and posters are now available. Contact James Shammas or Bob Kitamura if you need any.

Soap Box- Milt Batson said his broken kneecap was due to attending his nephew's high school basketball game and had nothing to do with the Mafia.

Governor's Visit (2/23)- This will be a luncheon at the Madonna Inn. A sign-up sheet is circulating with meal choices of roast beef, chicken, or vegetarian lasagna. The cost is $30.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas ruled. Henry Rible paid for his birthday. Bob Alderman gave for his wife's B-D. Dick Riggins chipped in for his wedding anniversary. Rich Carsel had a sad buck because he never had a marriage in the month of January. Diana Meyer pleaded for a temporary (5-6 months) replacement as program coordinator.
