

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

April 4, 2019

Guests- Rich Carsel brought Joseph Borjas, a fellow attorney. Circle K was represented by its new President Sabrina Hetzler and Past Lt. Gov. Nicholas Wright.

Board Meeting (4/3)- Near final results of the Crab Feed showed we raised about $14,000. Next year's Feed will be on 3/14/2020. We donated $500 each to the SLOOHS Robotics Team, Welcome Home Military Heroes, and the SLO Girls Softball Association.

Circle K- They are doing a beach cleanup and will have a booth at the Cal Poly Open House.

Joke- Larry Meek got a 50-50 approval for a snow storm funny.

Soap Box- Bob Alderman discussed a book about the engineering of the Roman aqueducts.

Museum Trip- Kevin Hauber is trying to make carpool arrangements for a trip to the Peterson Auto Museum in LA in May. Contact him if you are interested.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the extraction. Ralph Slocum was late. Hilding Larson didn't ask for an introduction our guest speaker. Rich Carsel gave a plug for next week's program (see below). Larry Meek paid for the joke. Bob Alderman got hit for going to a politically incorrect college (Stanford) and his granddaughter's wedding. Ralph Battles survived a ski trip to Oregon. Roger Jumped was touched by the college scholarship applications. Bill Fieldhouse's phone rang. James Shammass had a game high of 136 at the Bowlathon. Construction has finally started on Dick Riggins' house addition. Henry Rible gave big bucks for his recently deceased mother making it to age 99 without any significant physical or mental impairments and for his 13-year-old grandson running the LA Marathon.

Program- Our speaker was Courtney Crawford of Jack's Helping Hand. This organization has been in existence for 25 years and provides assistance for children with cancer. It has programs that provide physical, equine, and swim therapy as well as helping with financial and travel assistance. They have recently broken ground on an Imagination Park in Nipomo, which will be the first universally accessible park for physically challenged children in SLO County. They sponsor Camp Reach for the Stars in Cambria for families and their children who are currently in cancer treatment or in remission.

Drawings- $10- Roger Jump

$28- Gary Simas

Flag- Jim Irwin

Fine Free- James Shammass

Song- Gary Simas

Joke- Dick Riggins

Inspiration- Lynn Cooper

Soap Box- Henry Rible

Membership ($105)- Larry Meek picked the diamond 4.

Next Program- Rich Carsel leading a panel on Alzheimer's Disease.

Upcoming Dates-

4/6- K-One Day at the River Walk in Paso.

4/7- Feed the Homeless.

4/30- Interclub in Paso Robles at the Culinary Institute.

5/31- Drive-thru BBQ.

7/10- We sponsor the DCM.