

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

June 13, 2019

Guests- Ralph Battles brought his better half, Kathy. Gene Waddell (Steele) and Robert Crosby (Slocum) have submitted new member applications.

Scholarships- We received a letter from the Counselling office of SLOHS indicating our scholarship winners will be attending the following colleges: Univ. of Pennsylvania, Cornell, Cal Poly, and UC Berkeley (2).

Sick Call- Roger Jump was hospitalized with complications from his leg artery procedure.

Hunger Awareness Day (6/7)- Results of money raised are still pending. Thanks to all who helped out.

Joke- Fine free Doc Steele got away with another lawyer insult.

Soap Box- Former paramedic John Forsberg talked about the risk factors for heart disease and how to do hands-only CPR.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Ralph Slocum and Lynn Cooper paid for advertising. Henry Rible was confused about Hunger Awareness Day. Rich Carsel said he was sick of lawyer jokes while Stew Jenkins thinks they are free advertising. Bill Fieldhouse got hit for Jerry Lenthall's B-D. Ben McAdams reported his wife is doing well 4 weeks after cardiac surgery. Milt Batson said his new tractor is doing well.

Program- Ralph and Kathy Battles led us through Ralph and Roger Jump's new senior living song book, featuring ditties such as "Walking My Baby Back Home", "Mr. Sandman", and "Love Potion #9". Our club is not a threat to Mitch Miller's legacy.
