

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

July 25, 2019

Guests- Lynn Cooper brought his partner in crime, Steve Ingels.

Interclub (7/23)- Prez Hilding, Gene Waddell, Diana Meyer, and Doc Steele visited the Greater Pismo Beach club which meets in Arroyo Grande. Diana was the winner of their 50-50 drawing.

Kiwanis Membership Drive- We still need housing for 2 of the 8 out of town recruiters who will be here from Aug. 4th-7th. Contact Prez Hilding if you can help.

Auction- We will auction off a Swedish Massage at the Dolphin Bay Hotel at our next meeting. It is worth $100 and must be taken by Sept. 30th. Diana Meyer is donating this.

Joke- Jim Irwin escaped a fine with a blonde-lawyer funny.

Soap Box- Ralph Slocum has been in the club about a year. He is married and has 4 grown children. He has been a stock broker since 1989 and has run his own Slocum Wealth Management for 9 years.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas was the fine master. Ralph Slocum was hit for a poor joke during the soap box. He also gave for a vacation in Hawaii. Diana Meyer relinquished some of her interclub winnings. John Durant is back from one vacation and is set to go on another one. Roger Jump was happy about serving on jury duty. Prez Hilding paid for his phone ringing. Gary Simas fined himself for not giving 50-50 tickets to one of our speakers.

Program- Our speakers were Cricket Handler and Jill Anderson of the Canzona Womens Ensemble. This group was started in 2009 and currently presents 2 concerts per year. These are usually at the United Methodist Church and are made up of 24 singers and various instruments. They also sing with several youth groups and emphasize and commission female compositions. A video from a concert entitled "California Sunny and Mild" was presented.
