

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Aug. 29, 2019

Guests- Bill Harris came for the 3rd time and submitted his membership application. Diana Meyer brought us an apple pie for dessert.

BBQ (8/24)- Bill Fieldhouse, Jim Irwin, Dick Riggins, and Doc Steele did a chicken barbecue that we had donated to the Tolosa Pediatric Dental Clinic.

Key Club- Diana Meyer reported they are preparing for the club rush at SLOHS next week.

Joke- Gene Waddell scored with the story of a drunk in the confession box.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gene Waddell got hit for a poor intro. Lynn Coper paid for advertising his home address. John Durant, Gary Simas, and James Shammas were happy about SLOHS beating Arroyo Grande High in football for the first time since 2008. Dick Riggins and Henry Rible thanked Diana for the dessert. Bob Kitamura watched the Dodgers lose to the Yankees. Ill Harris was sad he apparently tore his Achilles tendon. Ralph Slocum will be going to Italy. Bob Alderman paid for his phone ringing. Rich Carsel was sad his brother John has been unable to attend our meeting due to being in family court in Paso on Thursdays, but is looking forward to a vacation.

Program- We had a potpourri of soap boxes. Diana Meyer told a sad story and a joke. Lynn Cooper gave us sheets summarizing the real estate listings in SLO. Hilding Larson spoke about the recent CalNevHa convention. John Durant recounted his European cruise. Dick Riggins gave us the Shell Beach bird report. Ralph Slocum described the condition of the streets of San Francisco.
