

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Oct. 17, 2019

Prez Bob Kitamura ran the meeting for the second week in a row but managed to lose the bell and gavel. Our meeting was graced by the attendance of Lt. Gov. Al Strunk and Immediate Past Lt. Gov Steve Click. It was enhanced by the pumpkin pie dessert brought by Diana Meyer.

Key Club- 20 students were present at the last meeting. They will be making toys for dogs this weekend at Santa Rosa Park. They are also planning a movie night.

Region 10 Meeting (11/2)- Steve Click is running for the regional trusteeship at this meeting in Santa Maria. Bob Kitamura will be one of our delegates. Contact Bob if you would like to attend the Kiwanis courses. It runs from 9am to 3pm.

See's Candy- Try to sell as much candy as you can for this fundraiser. Orders must be in by 11/21.

Joke- Ralph Slocum taught us how every racist, sexist, xenophobic joke starts. Ben McAdams gave us the definition of irony.

Soap Box- Lynn Cooper told us about the volunteer opportunities outlines in his real estate newsletter as well as the 10 commandments of selling a home.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the extracting. Ben McAdams was hit for not standing for the Lt. Gov., leading the song, his phone ringing, and his joke. John Durant and Marvin Dee also paid for not standing. Roger Jump was confused about the name of the song but was happy about finishing a landscaping project. Diana Meyer gave for not stealing the bell. Ralph Slocum donated for his joke. Bill Fieldhouse was happy about the Boys State dinner. Henry Rible's daughter had to be evacuated during the Porter Ranch fire. Henry was sad about the B-17 crash in Connecticut. Bart Topham left early. Steve Click was happy about finishing his term as a board director with the State Teachers Association. Kit paid to get back the bell and gavel.

Program- Lt. Gov. Al Strunk retired last year's officers and board members and installed the new ones: President Bob Kitamura, V-P Lynn Cooper, Secretary Milt Batson, Treasurer Henry Rible and board members Ralph Slocum, Doc Steele, Gary Simas John Durant, Jim Irwin, Bob Alderman, and Jim Nielsen.
