

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Oct. 31, 2019

In honor of Halloween, Roger Jump led us in a rendition of the Addams Family song.

Region 10 Meeting- Bob Kitamura will be a delegate from our club for this meeting in Santa Maria this Saturday. Bob said he thought that Shane Kramer would also make an appearance there.

See's Candy- Deadline for orders is 11/21 with delivery expected by 12/5.

Joke- Ralph Battles scored with some TSA statistics.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Rich Carsel got hit for not paying attention and was sad about all the fires. James Shammass' mother was hospitalized with pneumonia but is now improving. James also mentioned that Bill Harris' ankle is on the mend. Bob Kitamura is happy the Nationals won the World Series. A badge check caught Roger Jump, Henry Rible, and Gary Simas.

Program- Our scheduled speaker cancelled out so Diana Meyer updated us with a slide show about the Key Club. They have 25 paid up members this year with a few more expected. Photos of club activities of the last year included participation at the Veg Fest, work at Pacific Beach H.S., Key Leader Camp, the Kiwanis Crab Feed and Drive-thru BBQ, and the recent project of making toys for dogs.
