

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Nov. 14, 2019

Prez Bob returned to head the meeting. Guests were Nyree and David Collello of the San Ramon Kiwanis Club.

See's Candy- Deadline for submitting orders for this fundraiser is next Thursday, Nov. 21st. Delivery is scheduled for Dec. 5th.

Progressive Dinner (12/15)- The signup sheet for this annual event will be circulated at the next meeting. Spouses and significant others are welcome.

Salvation Army (12/14)- The annual bell ringing is upon us. Sign up next week.

LA Auto Show (11/22)- 11 people have already signed up. Contact Kevin Hauber for info and carpooling.

Toys 4 Tots (12/5)- Bart Topham will be leading the collection of unwrapped new toys worth $10 or more.

Soap Box- George Petty castigated Boeing's development of the 737Max.

Joke- Ralph Slocum's corduroy joke did not tickle too many ribs.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Bart Topham did the honors. Rich Carsel paid for making too much noise while acting as a busboy and being confused about a client. Milt Batson was hit for wearing an old medallion and his phone ringing. Kevin Hauber liked the Soap Box but left early. Roger Jump paid for helping Kevin with the song. Ralph Slocum still is wearing a new member badge. Bill Fieldhouse, with help from Lynn Cooper and Jim Irwin, cooked 160 pork chops at the American Legion dinner. Doc Steele said it was the best kosher pork chop he's ever had. Dave Collello donated for the song, the program, and getting together with their children.

Program- Our speakers were SLOHS computer science teacher Jan Fetcho and junior students Anthony Man and Ved Kenjale. They are members of the high school robotics team which came in the top 100 out of thousands participating in the World Championships earlier this year held in Kentucky. The team, made up of 20-30 students, is an after-school activity. They compete regularly in the central and southern California area. Anthony and Ved gave us a demonstration of the robots functioning. Our club donated $500 to the team this year.
