Rich Carsel ran the meeting. Secret Greeter Diana Meyer was picked too late to nab anybody as unfriendly.

Key Club- 17 students showed at this week's meeting. Last weekend, the students went to Woods Humane Society to present the dog toys they had made.

Salvation Army (12/14)- The bell ringing will be at Best Buy, Beverley's Fabrics, and one other site to be determined. Please sign up for a 2-hour shift-contact Hilding Larson.

Progressive Dinner (12/15)- Everyone and their significant other is invited to this free social event. Sites are being finalized.

Toys 4 Tots (12/5)- Please bring in a new, unwrapped toy worth more than $10 at our next meeting.

Joke- Ralph Slocum got mixed reviews with a wedding toast.

Soap Box- Rich Carsel emphasized the need for a family having a plan if one of their members becomes demented, especially in regards to driving privileges.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas returned to do the honors. Rich Carsel got hit forgetting about Fines & Happy Bucks. Henry Rible paid for passing on the inspiration. Bill Fieldhouse and Jim Irwin gave poor intros. Gene Waddell was dismissed from jury duty. Fine Free Roger Jump's phone rang, but fine master Gary paid the 25-cent fine. Jim Nielsen came late and missed the secret greeter. Doc Steele paid for mistaking the day of the LA Auto Show and telling a Rush Limbaugh joke. Hilding Larson purchased a new Honda. James Shammass was happy about seeing the movie "Ford vs. Ferrari". Bob Alderman was glad all spots for the next Feed the Homeless are filled. Gary Simas will be going to the Peterson Auto Museum to take a photo with a classic car.

Program- Our speaker was author Lili Sinclair who has written books on anxiety, depression, and addiction. She described the different "forks of life" wherein people can change their life from within by changes in thoughts, belief, focusing, actions, feelings, connections, and letting go.
