

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Jan. 2, 2020

Doc Steele ran the meeting as Prez Bob and Rich Carsel were out of town.

Guests- Milt Batson brought daughter Letitia and grandchildren Jacob and Faith. Doc Steele hosted Jim Smith who was a 35-year Rotarian in SLO but has become a Kiwanian since he moved to Prescott, Arizona in June.

Crab Feed (4/18)- Tickets and posters are being printed and will be distributed soon. Gulliver's Travels and Upper Crust will continue as sponsors. One more sponsor is needed.

Key Club- They have been on winter break but are planning a Movie Night fundraiser.

Joke- Bill Fieldhouse scored with a pregnancy funny.

Soap Box- Mike Johnson's book about his early childhood in Ireland is now being sold in 7 countries.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas returned as fine master. Milt Batson was happy about his family visiting. Ralph Slocum has a good meal at the new restaurant in Hotel-SLO. Diana Meyer was disturbed by hearing what sounded like a cat's meow in our room. Dick Riggins and his wife are celebrating their 61st wedding anniversary. Henry Rible had another birthday and was affected by the heavy traffic in Southern California over the holidays. Bob Alderman was glad he had no such problem along the Northern California coast.

Program- Cub Scout Pack 31 was a last-minute cancellation. Milt Batson, who is our liaison with the pack, briefly talked about the importance of our club sponsoring the pack for many years and being the chartering organization.

Doc Steele discussed the meaning of Hanukkah and the many Christmas songs by Jewish songwriters.
