

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Jan. 16, 2020

Rich Carsel ran the meeting. Former member Mechell Vieira and her assistant Karen Chernow were guests. Rich was the self-appointed Secret Greeter and nabbed Diana Meyer and Gene Waddell as unfriendlies. He awarded George Petty a Kiwanis thumb drive for giving the best Soap Box of 2019.

DCM (1/15)- This was attended by Roger Jump and James Shammas as Circle K gave a slide show.

Key Club- 15 members and 2 guests made this week's meeting. They will be selling flower pins as a fund raiser downtown this weekend.

Crab Feed (4/18)- We still need one more sponsor. Contact James Shammas if you can help.

Circle K- 10 students attended this week's meeting also attended by John Durant.

Joke- Doc Steele scored with a lie-detector robot funny.

Soap Box- Henry Ruble talked about improving poverty statistics and showed off some classic racing car jackets.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Sims was the fine master. He hit Ralph Slocum for poor intros. Rich Carmel paid for kissing up to the fine master. George Petty complained that his award should have had a monetary component. James Shammas reported he saw Lesley Cone and is happy she is improving. Henry Rible commented on the Ford v. Ferrari movie. Doc Steele gave a sad buck for the death of his 15-year old lab. Ralph Slocum mentioned the new retirement IRA regulations and the passing of the Mexican-US- Canadian trade pact. Diana Meyer was happy about Key Club getting a banner patch for dues payment.

Program- Our speaker was Stacy Korsgaden, candidate for 3rd district supervisor. She has been an insurance agency owner, a chairwoman of the South County Chamber of Commerce, and a President of the South County Boys & Girls Club. She believes the 3 main issues facing the country are homelessness, jobs, and traffic. She expressed her ideas on using Camp San Luis as a possible shelter, replacing Diablo Canyon, and better use of the gas tax.
