

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Feb. 13, 2020

There were no guests other than our program speaker.

Mid-Winter Conference (2/8)- Prez Bob went to the educational meeting in San Gabriel which emphasized getting the "Kiwanis brand" out to the public.

Crab Feed (4/18)- Fliers and posters are printed and ready for distribution. Tickets will be available next week.

Key Club- 15 students attended this week's meeting.

Joke- John Durant got mixed reviews for a fishing joke.

Soap Box- Bill Fieldhouse plugged the American Legion golf tournament on 3/14. He also chairs the Legion's Boys State scholarship panel and was very impressed with this year's applicants.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas did the honors. Diana Meyer got hit for a poor intro. Ralph Slocum had difficulty pronouncing the Rye's (SLO AM club) name and gave for his and his wife's birthdays. Milt Batson was late and was proud of his veterinarian daughter's set up in Northern California. Henry Rible and Ben McAdams paid for being graduates of Boys State. Jim Irwin gave for his wife's B-D. Bart Topham donated for his own B-D. Rich Carsel pitched in for his B-D and a Cajun joke. Roger Jump was proud of the Feed the Homeless work of Bob Alderman and Rich Carsel. Ben McAdams is also celebrating a birthday.

Program- Our speaker was Loren Leidinger, Outreach and Development Director of the Community Action Partnership of San Luis Obispo County. This was started 55 years ago as the Economic Opportunity Commission and was renamed CAPSLO about 10 years ago. Their mission is to help people become self-sufficient. They sponsor programs such as the homeless center, head start, child care and development, health clinics, veterans support, adult day care, tattoo removal, and teen parenting support.
