

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Feb. 20, 2020

Rich Carsel ran the meeting in the absence of Prez Bob. Secret Greeter Milt Batson nabbed 8 members as unfriendly.

Interclub (2/25)- It is National Pancake Day at the SLOAM club's meeting at 7:15am at IHOP. A short stack is free but donations are requested for the Children's Miracle Network (Cottage Hospital).

Crab Feed (4/18)- Tickets and fliers are available from James Shammas. Contact Roger Jump or Diana Meyer if you have auction items.

Key Club- 20 students were at this week's meeting. They made woolen beanies for premature infants at local hospitals.

Circle K- John Durant attended this week's meeting. They are doing volunteer projects at the Prado Center, Food Bank, and the beach.

Joke- Jim Irwin told a statistician funny with mixed reviews.

Pediatric Dental Clinic- Lynn Cooper and Ben McAdams will represent our club at a reception on March 5th which recognizes our contribution toward a new automatic dental chair.

Soap Box- Kevin Hauber demonstrated some restorative yoga exercises.

KI Convention (6/17-20)- This will be held in Indianapolis and consist of educational meetings, elections, entertainment, and dynamic speakers. Our club will subsidize some of the expenses for members willing to attend.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas was fine master. Rich Carsel was hit for Jim Irwin's joke and making Milt Batson the Secret Greeter. Irwin gave a happy buck for being fine free. Gary Was happy about Cal Poly's baseball team beating nationally ranked Vanderbilt. Roger Jump forwarded some happy bucks from Ralph Battles who heard Gary speak at the Order of Minor Historians meeting. Doc Steele gave for noting that it doesn't rain in Indianapolis in the summer time.

Program- Our speaker was Bobby DeLancellotti who has founded the Estero Bay Kindness Coalition. This organization provides 180-200 backpacks per weekend to students at/or below the poverty level filled with nutritious food to cover their weekend meals. It started 2 years ago at 7 north coast schools and is now extending down to the SLO and south county area. It works with 60 organizations and has 65 volunteers.

Drawings- $10- Lynn Cooper

$25- Roger Jump

Flag- Milt Batson

Fine Free- Diana Meyer

Song- Henry Rible

Joke- George Petty

Inspiration- Roger Jump

Soap Box- James Shammass

Membership ($145.00)- Diana Meyer picked the 4 of clubs.

Next Program- Congressional candidate Andy Caldwell.

Upcoming Dates-

2/25- Interclub.

2/29- Governor's visit.

3/1- Feed the Homeless.

3/3- Board Meeting.

4/18- Crab Feed.

5/15- Trip to Petersen Auto Museum.