

KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

Dec. 27,2018

There were no guests. Doc Steele gave an inspiration containing politically incorrect verbiage in Christmas songs. Prez Hilding gave out photos of our Salvation Army bell ringing.

Financial Report- Ralph Slocum explained the Mind Body purchase deal. Ralph also believes that with the latest dip in the stock market, stocks are on sale.

Joke- Ralph told 2 bar jokes which elicited groans from the membership.

Fines & Happy Bucks- Gary Simas returned as fine master and was fine-free. Prez Hilding gave happy bucks for his upcoming trip to Pasadena where he will help with the Kiwanis Rose Bowl float, attend the international President's lunch, sit in the VIP section at the parade, and watch his alma mater, Univ. of Washington, play against Ohio State. Roger Jump was happy about using Uber for the first time. James Shammass was happy about the season and the memories of growing up in Eagle Rock and helping with the Rose Bowl floats. Jim Nielsen enjoyed the Christmas holiday with his family and will be moving to the Villages. Doc Steele gave for his inspiration. Ralph Slocum paid for his jokes and was happy about knowing Jim's daughter. Gary Simas donated for a recent trip.

Program- This consisted of 2 soap boxes. James Shammass explained the significance of SLO County's recent allocation of funds toward affordable housing and the various ways affordable housing has been financed. Roger Jump described the 5 levels of care for the elderly: (1) independent living; (2) congregate care; (3) assisted living; (4) skilled nursing facilities; (5) acute hospitalization.

Drawings-	$5- James Shammass	$20- Gary Simas
	Flag- Milt Batson	Fine Free- James Shammass
	Song- Bill Fieldhouse	Soap Box- Mechelle Vieira
	Inspiration- Bart Topham	Joke- Rich Carsel

Membership ($70)- Roger Jump picked the 6 of spades.

Next Program- SLOHS Key Club.

Upcoming Dates-

1/6- Feed The Homeless.

1/9- Board Meeting.

1/16- Interclub at Bay-Osos.

2/23- Governor's visit.

3/16- Crab Feed.

5/31- Drive-thru BBQ.